1. Aims

Our SEN policy and information report aims to:

- Set out how our school will support and make provision for pupils with special educational needs (SEN)
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved in providing for pupils with SEN

This SEND policy will ensure that we are an educationally inclusive school where the teaching and learning, achievements, attitudes and well-being of every student matters. Penketh High School provides an inclusive curriculum, which is designed to meet the needs of all its students. Any student may have special needs at different times and therefore a wide variety of strategies are used to meet these needs as they arise. Learning diversity is recognised and planned for, any barriers to learning and participation will be challenged and removed and all students will be provided with equality of opportunity. All members of staff have a responsibility to ensure that every student has an equal opportunity to attain their maximum potential and are valued equally, regardless of ability, race, gender or need.

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy and information report is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice. The law states that all schools must 'have regard' to the SEN Code when deciding how to support children with special educational needs. The Special Needs and Disability Act 2014 sets out the legislation for the identification and provision for children / young people with special educational need and / or disability (SEND). In addition, provision at Penketh High School follows guidelines outlined in Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out schools' responsibilities for pupils with SEN and disabilities and The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out schools' responsibilities for education, health and care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the SEN information report.

3. Definitions

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

1. A significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
2. A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools.

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools.

Special educational provision may be triggered when a student fails to achieve adequate progress, despite having access to a differentiated programme of work.

Lack of adequate progress might be indicated by:

1. Little or no progress despite the use of targeted teaching approaches and a differentiated curriculum
2. Working below age related expectations, particularly in English or Maths

3. Presenting persistent emotional / and or health difficulties, which have not been managed by appropriate strategies usually employed
4. Sensory or physical impairments that result in little progress despite the provision of appropriate aids or equipment.
5. Poor communication or interaction, requiring specific interactions and adaptations to access learning

4. Roles and responsibilities

5. SEN information report

5.1 The kinds of SEN that are provided for

Our school currently provides additional and/or different provision for a range of needs, including:

Communication and Interaction

SLCN (Speech, Language and Communication Needs)

ASD (Autistic Spectrum Disorders)

Cognition and Learning

When children learn at a slower pace than their peers, even with appropriate differentiation

MLD (Moderate Learning Difficulties)

SpLD (Specific Learning Difficulties - one or more specific aspects of learning. This encompasses a range of conditions such as dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia).

Social, Emotional and Mental Health Difficulties

Wide range of difficulties that manifest themselves in many ways e.g. becoming isolated, withdrawn, displaying challenging, disruptive behaviour. They may reflect underlying mental health conditions such as anxiety, depression, self-harming, substance misuse, trauma, eating disorders or other physical symptoms that are medically unexplained.

ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder)

ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder)

Attachment Disorder

Sensory and/or Physical Needs, including:

Vision Impairment

Hearing Impairment

Multi-Sensory Impairment

Physical Disability

5.2 Identifying pupils with SEN and assessing their needs

- Pupil passports are created to communicate information about SEN pupils.
- Pupil targets are written to address their barriers to learning.
- The SENDCO will inform teachers of the pupils' needs and also support the teachers, by providing advice.
- Pupil intervention/support is recorded and analysed via provision maps.
- Pupils with statements/Education, Health Care Plans (EHCP) will have annual reviews to evaluate their progress; these involve the SENDCO, parents/ carers, child and other professionals when appropriate.
- All SEND pupils will be given the opportunity to access the KS3, and KS4 curriculum. Pupils may require intensive intervention in the 'Orchard Centre'.
- Pupils in the 'Designated Provision' will have a tailored curriculum matched to their needs.

- Class teachers will make regular assessments of progress for all pupils and identify those whose progress is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline; Fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress; Fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers or widens the attainment gap.

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, social needs.

Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN.

When deciding whether special educational provision is required, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

- For a pupil with English as an additional language, lack of competence in English is not equated with learning difficulties, as understood in the Code of Practice. Where there is concern about SEN, advice will be sought from the LA and a full assessment of a pupil's language skills obtained. This information will form the basis of further work in assisting their learning difficulties.

Education and Health Care Plans

For a small number of pupils, it may be necessary, in further consultation with parents and external agencies, to consider whether to ask the LA to initiate a statutory assessment. The description of the pupil's learning difficulty together with information about the special provision made will form the basis on which the LA can consider whether statutory assessment is necessary.

All pupils who are in receipt of a statement or EHCP are reviewed annually on a formal basis, when parents/ carers, pupils and outside agencies are requested to comment upon progress made and difficulties experienced. All persons, along with the pupil, are invited to attend the review.

5.3 Consulting and involving pupils and parents

We will have an early discussion with the pupil and their parents when identifying whether they need special educational provision. These conversations will make sure that:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty
- We take into account the parents' concerns
- Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child
- Everyone is clear on what the next steps are

We will formally notify parents when it is decided that a pupil will receive SEN support.

5.4 Assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes

We will follow the graduated approach and the four-part cycle of assess, plan, do, review.

The subject teacher will work with the SENCO to carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. This will draw on:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- Their previous progress and attainment and behaviour
- Other teachers' assessments, where relevant
- The individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data
- The views and experience of parents
- The pupil's own views
- Advice from external support services, if relevant

The assessment will be reviewed regularly.

All teachers and support staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided, and any teaching strategies or approaches that are required. We will regularly review the effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress.

The special educational needs and disability policy will value every individual equally, promoting and providing opportunities for all students to:

- Have identified, at the earliest possible opportunity, barriers to learning and participation for pupils with SEND
- Experience success in their learning and achieves to the highest possible standard
- Participate in lessons fully and effectively
- To value and encourage the contribution of all pupils to the life of the school
- To work in partnership with parents / carers
- Pupils to reach their full potential by promoting opportunities for them to learn in a safe secure environment
- Develop confidence and self- esteem by engaging in the curriculum
- Enjoy and value learning through the support given and the appropriate access to the curriculum
- Developing personal responsibility and respect
- Have their special need identified and met. This can range from being mild to severe, for a short space of time or long term
- Fulfil their potential in a safe, calm, appropriate learning environment

5.5 Supporting pupils moving between phases and preparing for adulthood

The SEN team will contact primary schools to gather information on the new intake of pupils. Any information is then shared with relevant staff including the SENCO. Additional transition arrangements will be offered to support all pupils who are identified as needing this.

We will share information with the school, college, or other setting the pupil is moving to. We will agree with parents and pupils which information will be shared as part of this. Additional taster days can be arranged to support the transition to KS4.

5.6 Our approach to teaching pupils with SEN

Teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of all the pupils in their class. High quality teaching is our first step in responding to pupils who have SEN. This will be differentiated for individual pupils.

We will also provide the following interventions: Speech and Language, motor skills, reading, maths, spelling, social skills and dyslexia.

5.7 Adaptations to the curriculum and learning environment

We make the following adaptations to ensure all pupils' needs are met:

- Adapting our resources and staffing
- Using recommended aids, such as laptops, coloured overlays, visual timetables, larger font, etc.
- Differentiating our teaching, for example, giving longer processing times, pre-teaching of key vocabulary, reading instructions aloud, etc.

- Equipment / facilities are provided on an individual 'needs' basis.
- Where necessary, specialist equipment and resources may be loaned by specialist services.
- A range of coloured overlays etc. are available when required or advised by specialist services.
